TASHMAN ON TV

By George Tashman

When I was a kid in New York City, ethnic broadcasting meant something other than a program starring Gypsy Kings, Gypsy Queens, Gypsy Dicks, Jr., and Gypsy Greggs.

Ethnic broadcasting — on radio, in those days — was big business, and there were stations that broadcast in Italian and German and Yiddish and Russian and just about every other language that could be understood by people who had migrated to this country and who lived in the vicinity of New York. As a matter of fact, there was a radio station that broadcast primarily to the residents of Harlem, with news, features and music of interest to Negroes.

Today, of course, with the immigration gates closed to the point that only a trickle gets through, there isn't the great need for radio stations to end the isolation of immigrants — for people who cannot speak or read the language of the country in which they live are in almost total isolation as it were.

Rockwell Faces TV Cameramen

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — No man has had his fingers more firmly clamped to the American pulse in the 20th Century than artist Norman Rockwell.

Rockwell will appear in a television special featuring his paintings Nov. 12.

Rockwell in Hollywood is as much of a Duke Wayne as a ballerina.

But the 75-year-old painter appears to be a young man for his age. His choice of themes are contemporary, just as were the 300-plus covers he painted for the Saturday Evening Post and the 54 Boy Scout calendars during the years.

"Most of my work is a picture of a better day," he said after leaving NBC-TV to return to his home in Stockbridge, Mass.

But in those times we swept many things under the rug: racial problems, crime, sex, war and all the rest. Now it's necessary to paint what is really happening as I did with the moon landing.

There is a reverence for Rockwell's work among millions of Americans who are attuned to his understanding of the better aspects of life in this country.

Unfortunately, Rockwell is the man many a scatter-brained genius. He has no idea where the vast majority of his works are located.

His unregrettable originals are scattered all over the place. The largest, single collection is located in a pre-revolutionary house in Stockbridge which is an historical landmark.

One of his paintings is a portrait of a woman who is a descendant of the artist's great-grandfather.

Each of the announcements includes news and features about the artist's life and work.

And if you have ever wondered what "one of the great American artists" is like, you'll find out.

Evangeline Baker, once the First Lady of Hollywood, is the artist's daughter.

She is the daughter of the artist's father, who was a painter and a writer.
